ORDER

In the Government Order read as 1st paper above, Government have introduced Special Casual Leave for a period up to 15 days in a year, to the employees having physically/mentally challenged children. Instructions for the grant of the leave were issued in G.O read as 2nd paper above.

After having, examined the matter in detail, Government are pleased to extend the above benefit to the eligible employees of PSU's which follow Kerala Service Rules subject to the following instructions for the guidance of leave sanctioning authorities:-

i. Special Casual Leave up to 15 days in a calendar year may be granted to the employees having physically/mentally challenged children on production of certificate to that effect from an authorized medical officer attending them.

ii. The leave shall be granted on more than one occasion, if needed, altogether not exceeding 15 days in a calendar year.

iii. The leave may be combined with ordinary leave or ordinary casual leave and the period of leave shall be exclusive of public holidays that may intervene.

iv. If both parents are employees of PSU's/Government, a declaration countersigned by the competent authority to the effect that the spouse has not availed the leave in that calendar year, should be produced.

These orders will come into force with immediate effect.
