ORDER

As per the decision taken in the IFMS review meeting read first above, Director of Treasuries was entrusted to take steps for the achievement of paperless bill system. Based on this, Director of Treasuries submitted an action plan regarding the paperless bill system after detailed discussions with all the stake holders concerned. Then in the meeting read as second above, it was decided to implement DSC/e-sign for all departments and on stabilizing the same, paperless bill system would be introduced. Digital Signature is mandatory for all DDOs for electronic bill submission to treasuries as per the GOs and circular read above.

In continuation of these steps, now Government are pleased to introduce paperless bill system, duly authenticated with Digital signature of DDOs, for salary bills of 10/2019 onward for Finance and Treasury Departments on a pilot basis. On stabilizing the system, the same would be extended for other departments also in a phased manner.

Director of Treasuries and SPARK PMU are directed to make immediate necessary arrangements to facilitate for smooth transaction of online, paperless salary bills of these departments from 10/2019 onwards.

Necessary codal amendments in this regard will be issued subsequently.
